Raelians, you were born because the Elohim need you

Maitreya Rael on December 13, 76 aH

48 years! Some of you were not even born. Incredible! The world has changed so much but many of you have been with me since the beginning and you come at each meeting. Why? Because of love. And today, I will give you a special dose of love, directly from the Elohim.

I hope we will make the Embassy and suddenly I will go to the door and I will welcome Yahweh. Will you be with me? Yahweh is listening; he is looking at you through my eyes. I imagine we will be together and I'll say, "Now we will welcome somebody very special", and I'll go to the door. I hope you will cry; I know I will cry a lot. But because of the special link I have with them, I have a gift from them, a special gift of the Elohim for you. A shower of love from the Elohim... Feel it...

Remember to feel this love not only now, today when you leave, but tomorrow morning when you wake up, at all time... Each one of you is so important for them. In everything you do in your life, they are guiding you. Feel it, your life will never be the same. You are here because you have been guided by the Elohim to be with me. Some of you were even born because the Elohim wanted you to be with me; and you feel it.

Raelians, you were born because the Elohim need you. Feel it, every step of your life, every second of your life.

Stop watching stupid TV, looking at stupid Internet, telephone, selfies. You were born for the Elohim and you are making selfies?

Posting photos of your food on Facebook? Wake up! We are not here for that. I see Raelians posting the food they ate the day before. Your life has a deep meaning... "Look at my spaghetti!" You are not born for that. "Look at my new car..." No, you were born for the Elohim, feel it! One day, you will make a selfie with Yahweh. Until then, don't take photos of your food. Take photos of love, Raelians together, when you are at a Raelian meeting... but not your sashimi. You are not on Earth for sashimi, not for sushi; you have a mission and you are accomplishing it and have been for many years.

Are you willing to help me? Yes, I know, every year I see you, you are here, you drive several hours to be with me. When I will die, I hope you will have a meeting with food, music, dance; no crying. You cannot imagine how happy I will be. Dance, sing, send me your love. I will be looking at you, okay? I love you.

Be you, completely, unlimited

Maitreya Rael, November 21, 76 aH

The first person we need to send love to is you. Please remember that. Loving yourself is fundamental. Love yourself completely, unconditionally, without any identification, your whole self, feel that. This is you! Everything else can be an illusion. You are not Japanese. You are not your job. You are not your money. What are you? You are You! Feel it. From the moment you wake up, be thankful for being alive.

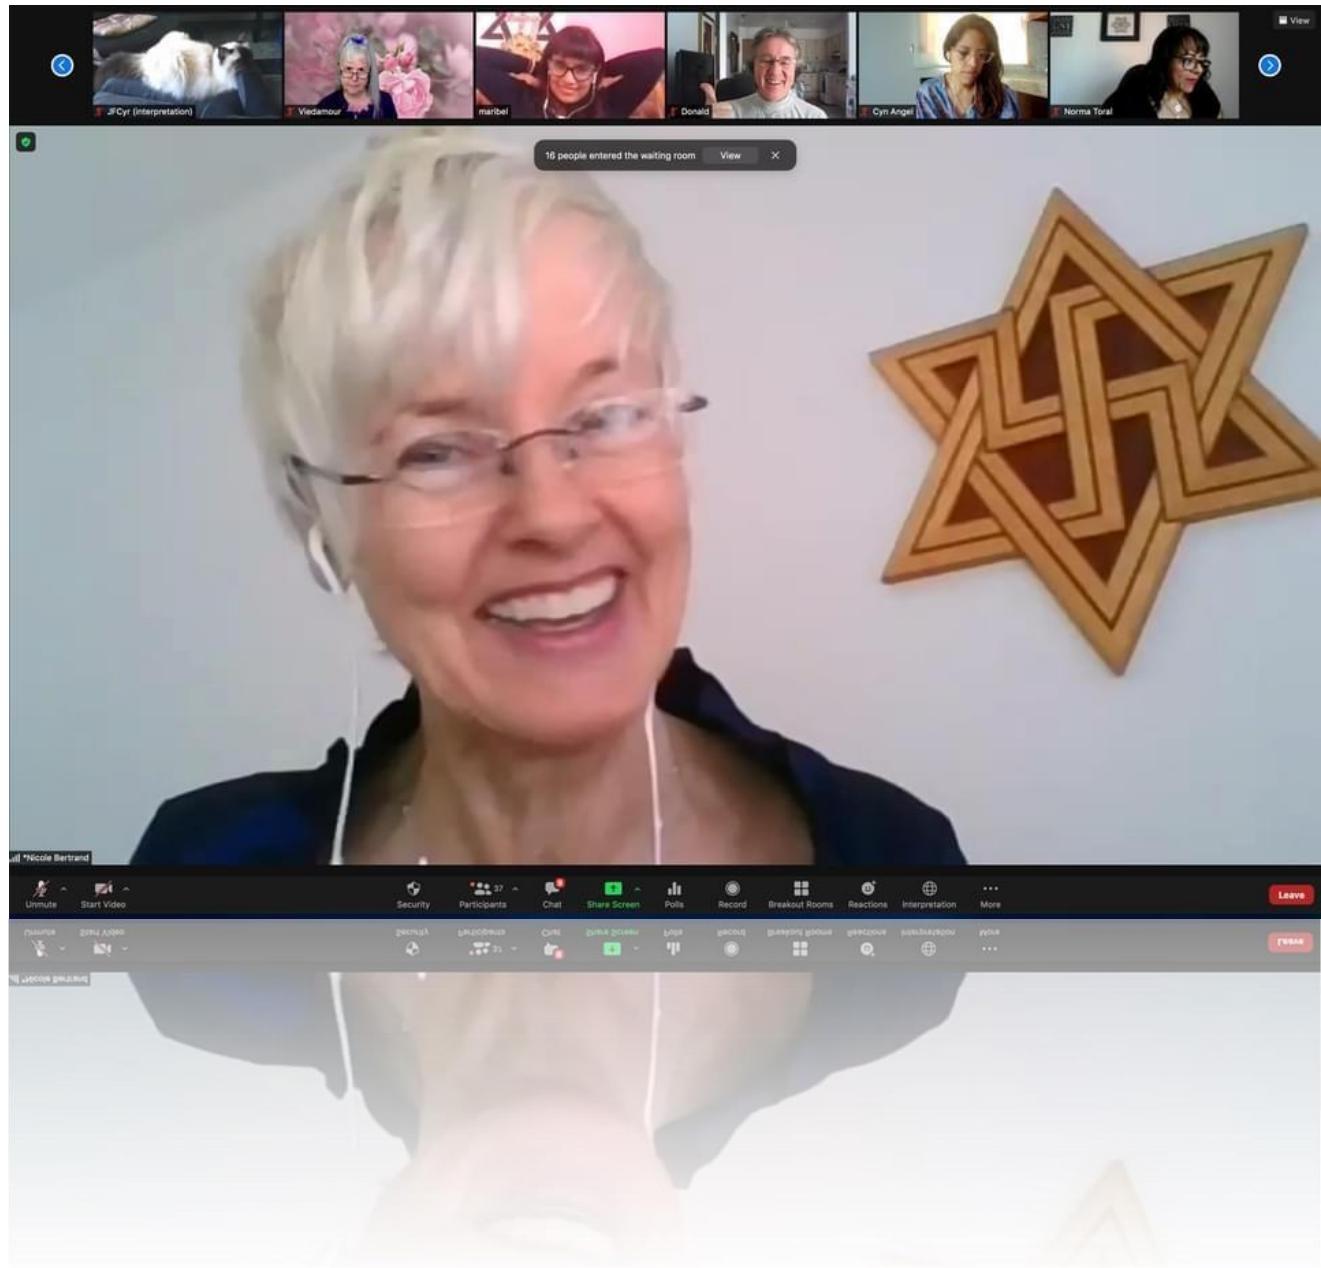

Each second on Earth four people die, each second. Maybe next second, it will be you or me, but now, right now: "I am". Everybody, feel the vibrations when saying, "I am me!"

What is you? Your education? Your memory? No! Your family? No! What is you? Your supraconsciousness! That's the only thing. And the most dangerous thing is "not to be". The most dangerous thing, which can make you forget "to be", is intelligence, thinking. When you think, you put distance with yourself.

Many people on Earth now suffer anxiety, depression, mental disease, bipolar disorder and many more brain issues. It comes from thinking. Thinking! Psychiatric hospitals are full of very intelligent people, many geniuses who are not happy; they are crazy. Some of them may say, "I am god" and they can explain in a very logical way that, yes, they are god or Julius Caesar or Genghis Khan. Because they think. Many Raelians are psychiatrists, doctors, who work in psychiatric hospitals, and they explain to me what kind of people are in these hospitals.

You are not like that, but you could become one of them if you start thinking too much or even a little; you can become crazy. Everybody could, especially us Raelians, because we have a religion that is Infinity. Listen to me: don't think about Infinity, never! Please! If you try to understand Infinity, you will become crazy. Feel it, that's beautiful! Feel Infinity but don't think about it. It is like when you want to have an orgasm, if you think about it, it stops. If you feel it, it comes.

So, really, the most dangerous thing is “intelligence”, the wrong intelligence. Feeling is the real intelligence. Intelligence means connecting information. When you feel infinity, you are truly intelligent, but you don’t use the thinking brain, you feel. It is the same when you laugh. Try thinking when you laugh. When somebody is very happy, he suddenly laugh and people around say, “Why, why is he laughing?” Why do they ask why? Because they are thinking! “Why are you laughing? Are you laughing at me?” That is judgement.

Thinking immediately creates judgement. “Am I looking stupid?” But if somebody tries to go out through this door and hit it with the head, I will laugh like crazy. I will not ask why, it’s just funny. Seeing a little insect moving makes me laugh. On the beach, this morning, we were walking, a little crab came... So funny! Crabs are funny.

But if you forget to look and to feel, you don't laugh. When you think you cannot laugh? When you ask, "Why? Which family is it, what is the name of this animal? What do they eat?", you cannot laugh. Look at the little crab, feel it. I would love to be a crab, moving sideways... That's not thinking.

I remember one sentence from Albert Einstein, he said, "I often try to find the solution to a problem and I think, and I think and I try to find and I cannot. Then, I go to my swimming pool and I swim and suddenly, the solution come." Mozart didn't seat at the piano saying, "Okay, I will create this music." No! Like Lotus, he sat at the piano and it came. No thinking! If you think, there is no music. Feel! Feel the happiness to be alive, the sky, the moon – tonight the moon was fantastic – then the music comes.

I love making poems. I can live with poems all the time, I can eat in poem, I can talk in poem. From childhood, I enjoy making poems. Often, when people ask me a question, I answer with a poem. Naturally. No thinking. A true poet doesn't think. It comes naturally. Bad painters make lines, they try to connect and erase. I saw a video of Picasso, he took a piece of paper... and that was it. No thinking, no calculating the distance. No, it is just... coming. Feeling!

And that's what you lose if you think. So, thinking destroys happiness. Laughing, smiling creates happiness. Being! Be all you can be! Remember, you are killing somebody if you are not you, because nobody else than you can be you!

Be you, completely, unlimited! ☺

Equal to Equal

Maitreya Rael, October 3, 76 ah

I will say it again, it's never enough, "Thank you Elohim! Thank you for the Message". Not, "Thank you for creating life on Earth," but for giving us the Message. It's absolutely amazing! Because in every religion, the Creator or Creators, give a message to people saying, "Pray! Obey! We are your Creators! We are God! Just bend down and be obedient. We are God, we are your Creators, and you are just a little creation. You are only fit to build a temple or a church and pray."

For the first time in the history of humanity, our Creators send a message that tells us, "Don't pray. Don't build any church or temple for us. Don't bend down. Stand up! Look at the sky, that is where your Creators are. And the Creators, for the first time in our history, tell us, "We are equal." This is the first time that man can look at the sky and say, "Our Creators are equal to us!"

The Elohim's Message says, "We are not superior to you. We are more advanced, a twenty-five thousand years advance, okay! But we are not superior. Yes, in terms of science, we are advanced. In technology, we are advanced. In everything, we are scientifically advanced. But in supraconsciousness, we are equal."

When we meditate, when we put ourselves in harmony with infinity, we are equal to the Elohim. When you meditate in front of the Elohim's symbol, the Elohim are doing the same thing at the same time. There are not twenty or fifty different ways of meditating on the symbol. Only one. And it's the same. Not only for the Elohim, but in every part of the universe. Because the Elohim teach us about infinity, that means there is an infinite number of Elohim. In every direction, you have an infinite number of planets with life on it. In every direction: up, down, right, left, inside. An infinity of Elohim! So, when you put yourself in harmony with infinity, you are in harmony with everything. And for the first time, you can stand on your legs, feel the ground and say, "Thank you Elohim for giving us the most beautiful part of the Message: you are equal to us!" That's why they don't say, "You have to build an embassy." Never! No orders. A master can order. The Elohim are not our masters. They are our guides! And they say, "If... if you wish", a big IF. The most important part is IF. "If you wish, build an embassy and we will come."

Equal to equal!

There will be two parts in the embassy: one for the Elohim, one for humans, and in the middle a big conference room where they will speak, equal to equal, with leaders of the Earth.

You Raelians are living something absolutely unique. Never in the history of humanity could men look at the sky and say, "We are equal." In every culture, in every country, "God, please." No more! We want to welcome them, we want to welcome the Elohim as our Creators and look at them face to face in the eyes with love. The only possibility to experience real love is equal to equal. If you feel superior to your girlfriend, there is no love. "Men are superior to women" means no love!

We are Equal.

And then love exists. It's the same for the Elohim and humanity. So, "Thank you Elohim for the Message!" It's the first time they come and no longer ask us to pray and bow down, they are asking us to be equal instead. That's the privilege of being Raelian. It's written in the Bible: "Children of humanity, stand on your own two legs!" Before, it was, "Please, bow down." No, no, no. That's finished! Now it's, "Stand on your own two legs and spread love!"

This message and this concept of equality are very important between men and women, but also between every race! Why was there colonialism and imperialism? Because European people felt superior to the rest of the world. Why did the Americans send an atomic bomb on Hiroshima? Because they were, and they still are, sure they are superior to the Japanese; and they colonized the entire planet. Europeans and Americans, which are basically the same, invaded India, Africa, China, Australia, New Zealand, everywhere, believing they were superior. So, this concept of equality is very important, fundamental, in the Message of the Elohim. It applies to our relationship with the Elohim, to the relationship between men and women, and to the relationship between races. To everything. To the way we look at animals, plants, everything. We are equal. We are one!

We cannot be one if we are not equal. In our meditations always, we are one, we want to feel one with the universe. It's impossible to feel oneness if you feel superior.

Oneness needs equality.

Feel it.

Thank you, Elohim!

Be selective with what you read and share, be a vector of love

Maitreya Rael, posted on Facebook on November 25, 76 aH

If we are not vigilant, we can all be intoxicated by the media poison that pours out a continuous stream of anxiety-inducing and negative news. There was the so-called global warming, then Covid and everything that goes with it from the mask to the health pass and lockdowns. All this negative and anxiety-inducing information cause a permanent stress that weakens our immune system at a time when it must be kept in top shape. Some Raelians who believe they are doing the right thing spend all their time researching news like this in order to unmask the plots of the authorities. We all know very well that it exists and we do not need to roll in it all the time. It is time for Raelians to focus on the good news, especially all that which relates to the beauty of the creation of the Elohim, personal development, and ways to increase happiness. Remember that the news you choose to read affects your happiness and your immune system. Millions of people are busy denouncing the abuses of the authorities. We Raelians have other priorities: to spread the Messages, to build the Embassy, and to increase love and happiness on Earth. So be very selective with what you read and share. Being focused on the negative is harmful but it is your choice. However, do not lead others in that direction by sharing these poisons. Remember that only Love can save Humanity. Be a vector of this love. Instead of spending your time looking for the negative on the Internet, look for the positive! There is plenty and infinitely more than the negative! All you have to do is look for it.... and share it!

Remember your joy when reading the Messages for the first time and nurture it!!!

A message received online recently; an example of the diamonds that we all collectively unearthing with our actions and dedication

Dearest Rael,

Let me just shoot some words to describe how your three books have me feeling at the moment: excited, validated, clear-headed, intent, joyous, thankful, content, appreciative, loved/loving. Since a young age of about 3, 4, or 5, and when my Hispanic mother and Irish father dragged me to church, I knew something was not right with what was being taught to me. It just didn't make sense logically. And do not get me started with the Bible; I could try to read it and in doing so confidently, I could immediately see that this book was a falsity.

Later, I learned the word convoluted and understood it to be more accurate. But you may get my point. Throughout my entire life, I knew that there was more to be learnt; that there were secrets being kept from the greater population. Your books have brought confirmation of every notion I have ever had. I know what my purpose is and it is to lead. For so long, I was lost. No religion, no respect for authority, I was aimless. After reading your books and knowing that they were placed in front of me at just the right time in our progression on this planet at the sprightly young age of 40, I now know that it is my mission to bring about the knowledge that you have written in your book. It has provided so much clarity for me and understanding of things in history that it is considered to me to be essential reading in this day and age. I write now to say thank you. To say, "I'm in!" I'm ready to help. I understand. I love you for your courage. And I love our creators for not just creating, but for their incredible patience with us humans.

I want to do my part in showing my appreciation and I think the best and easiest way for me to do that is to awaken people. In so much that I just provide them with the truths that I have read. The books state that we cannot help everybody, but I want to at least provide the opportunity for all that I encounter to be a part of this new day and age that we are entering.

I salute you and give you my full inclusion with this mission. I do not expect a response as I am sure you are a busy person. But just know your books have had the most positive effect on my life and its well-being; they have provided me with light and love that I cannot restrain and legitimately exude at all times. To think that I was on this path starting about two years ago and it has led me here, writing to you. The journey isn't over; it is just beginning for me. I thank you for your commitment and diligence with the task that has been given to you. I look forward to making a difference for all that I come into contact with.

Warmest and Sincerest,

Regards, C.

GoTopless victory in Colombia

By Nadine Gary, leader of the GoTopless project

On GoTopless day, Aug 22, 2021, Ruby Macea, a Raelian from Colombia, was fined for going topless on the beach in Cartagena, Colombia. She appealed and she won in three big ways!

First, the final verdict, applicable in Colombia, nationwide, is revolutionary because the judge didn't only speak about constitutional gender equality but she also addressed citizens' concern over children in the presence of topless women in public in a very conscious manner. She quoted the provisions of the General Law of Education or Law 115 of 1994, sexual education from the preschool level that allows for the development of a healthy sexuality promoting self-acknowledgement and self-esteem, the construction of sexual identity within the respect for the equity of the sexes, mutual respect and preparing for a harmonious and responsible family life. She said, "Those are imperative objectives of the Colombian educational system."

Here is an article in Spanish for those who want to learn more about her story:
<https://www.eluniversal.com.co/cartagena/que-paso-con-el-comparendo-a-la-mujer-que-hizo-toples-en-cartagena-NF5667069>

Second, her story spread like wildfire and a national Colombian TV program did an eight-minute piece on her and her partner, Angel, as a Raelian couple, where they spoke at length about the Raelian philosophy. The show received over ten million views!!!

Third, the news has now spread internationally! For example, here, a paper in India picks it up:

Dear Prophet, Your vision for GoTopless back in 2007 continues to make tsunamis of consciousness around the world!
